LAWYERS LTD

TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT Effective as at 31.03.2024

1. General

- 1.1 These Standard Terms of Engagement (Terms) apply to any current engagement and also to any future engagement, whether or not we send you another copy of them. We are entitled to change these Terms from time to time, in which case we will send you amended Terms. Our relationship with you is governed by New Zealand law and New Zealand courts have exclusive jurisdiction.

2. Services

- 2.1 The services we are to provide for you (the Services) are outlined in our letter of engagement along with any further instructions that you provide to us in writing (or that we record in writing).
- 2.2 In order to provide you with efficient advice and services and to provide the most cost-effective service, it may be that part or all of your instructions will be delegated to other professionals in our firm.

3. Communications

- 3.1 We will obtain your contact details, including email address, postal address and telephone numbers. We may provide documents to you by email (or other electronic means). You will advise us if any of your contact details change.
- 3.2 We will report to you periodically on the progress of any engagement and will inform you of any material and unexpected delays, significant changes or complications in the work being undertaken. You may request a progress report at any time.
- 3.3 You agree that we may provide you from time to time with other information that may be relevant to you, such as newsletters and information bulletins. At any time you may request that this not be sent to you.

4. Financial

- 4.1 Fees: The basis upon which we will charge our fees is set out in our engagement letter.
- (a) If the engagement letter specifies a fixed fee, we will charge this for the agreed scope of the Services. Work which falls outside that scope will be charged on an hourly rate basis. We will advise you as soon as reasonably practicable if it becomes necessary for us to provide services outside of the agreed scope and, if requested, give you an estimate of the likely amount of the further costs.
- (b) Where our fees are calculated on an hourly basis, the hourly rates of the people we expect to undertake the work are set out in our engagement letter. Any differences in those rates reflect the different levels of experience and specialisation of our professional staff. Time spent is recorded in six-minute units.
- (c) Hourly fees may be adjusted (upwards or downwards) to ensure the fee is fair and reasonable to take into account matters such as the complexity, urgency, value and importance of the Services. Full details of the relevant fee factors are set out in Rule 9 of the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act.
- (d) Changes to legislation and regulations have increased the compliance obligations placed upon Law Firms. Accordingly, our fees may incur provision for works relating to compliance.
- 4.2 Disbursements and Third Party Expenses: In providing the Services we may incur disbursements and payments to third parties on your behalf. You authorise us to incur these disbursements (which may include such items such as search fees, court filing fees, registration fees and travel and courier charges) which are reasonably necessary to provide the Services. You also authorise us to make payments to third parties on your behalf which are reasonably required to undertake the Services (which may include items such as experts' costs or counsel's fees). These will be included in our invoice to you, shown as "disbursements" when the expenses are incurred (or in advance when we know we will be incurring them on your behalf).
- 4.3 Office Service Charge Fee (Administrative expenses): In addition to disbursements, we will charge a fee to cover out of pocket costs which are not included in our fee and which are not recorded as disbursements. These include items such as photocopying and printing, postage, file storage and destruction, and communications systems.
- 4.4 GST: Our services will usually attract Goods and Services Tax (GST). If this is the case, GST is payable by you on our fees and charges.
- 4.5 Invoices: We will send interim invoices to you, usually monthly, and on completion of the matter, or termination of our engagement. We may send you invoices more frequently when we incur a significant expense or undertake a significant amount of work over a shorter period of time. Interim invoices are generally not sent for conveyancing transactions which are prepared prior to settlement.
- 4.6 Payment: Invoices are payable within fourteen (14) days of the date of the notice, unless alternative arrangements have been made with us or it is a residential/commercial conveyancing transaction where our fees are payable upon settlement.
- (a) You authorise us to deduct our fees and other expenses from funds held in our trust account on your behalf on provision of an invoice to you, unless those funds are held for a particular purpose.
- (b) If you have difficulty in paying any of our accounts, please contact us promptly so that we may discuss payment arrangements.

- (c) If your account is overdue we may:
- (i) require interest to be paid on any amount which is more than 14 days overdue, calculated at the rate of 10% per annum for the period that the invoice is outstanding;
 - (ii) stop work on any matters in respect of which we are providing services to you;
 - (iii) require an additional payment of fees in advance or other security before recommencing work;
 - (iv) recover from you in full any costs we incur (including on a solicitor/client basis) in seeking to recover the amounts from you, including our own fees and the fees of any collection agency.
- (d) Payment may be made by:

- Eftpos (this can be organised through payment at our office);
 - Visa/Mastercard – Please note that all credit card payments incur a 3% service fee which is added to your Visa/Mastercard account;
 - Internet banking:
- Payee: Mathews & Associates Lawyers Ltd Trust Account
Bank Account: ANZ Bank 06- 0493- 0523095- 02
 Please quote the reference which is given on the invoice

- 4.7 Fees and disbursements in advance: We may ask you to pre-pay amounts to us, or to provide security for our fees and expenses. We may do this, on reasonable notice, at any time.
- 4.8 Estimates: You may request an estimate of our fee for undertaking the Services at any time. If possible, we will provide you with an estimate (which may be a range between a minimum and a maximum amount or for a particular task or step). An estimate is not a quote. Any significant assumptions included in the estimate will be stated and you must tell us if those assumptions are wrong or change. We will inform you if we are likely to exceed the estimate by any substantial amount. Unless specified, an estimate excludes GST, disbursements and expenses.
- 4.9 Hourly rates: Where a fixed fee may not apply our services are charged by the hour plus GST. We have set our rates as per the below categories:
- | | |
|---|------------------------|
| (a) Senior Solicitor rate | $400 per hour |
| (b) Senior Legal executive/Junior Solicitor rate | $250 - $300 per hour |
| (c) Junior Legal executive/Conveyancing executive | $200 - $250 per hour |
| (d) Secretarial/Administrative rate | $100 - $150 per hour |

These rates are subject to change. Where the price has a variable rate it will be determined by the experience level of the staff member assisting you.

- 4.10 Third Parties: Although you may expect to be reimbursed by a third party for our fees and expenses, and although our invoices may at your request or with your approval be directed to a third party, you remain responsible for payment to us in accordance with these Terms if the third party fails to pay us.
- 4.11 Trust Accounting: We operate a trust account. All money received from you or on your behalf will be held to your credit in our trust account.
- (a) Payments out of the trust account will be made either to you or to others with your authority. Written authorisation from you (and if we are acting for more than one of you, from all of you) will be required when payment is to be made to a third party. Before making a payment to another account we may require verification of the account details by provision of (for example) a copy of a deposit slip, cheque or bank statement showing the account number, a signed authority from you including the bank account details, or a signed letter from the relevant financial institution provide bank account details.
 - (b) A full record of our trust account is kept at all times. A statement of trust account transactions detailing funds received and payments made on your behalf will be provided to you periodically and at any time upon your request.
 - (c) Unless it is not reasonable or practicable to do so, when we hold significant funds for you for more than a short period of time we will place them on call deposit with a bank registered under section 69 of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989. Interest earned from call deposits, less withholding tax and an interest administration fee payable to us of 5% of the interest, will be credited to you.

5. Confidentiality and Personal Information

- 5.1 Confidence: We will hold in confidence all information concerning you or your affairs that we acquire during the course of acting for you. We will not disclose any of this information to any other person except:
- (a) to the extent necessary or desirable to enable us to carry out your instructions; or
 - (b) as expressly or impliedly agreed by you; or
 - (c) as necessary to protect our interests in respect of any complaint or dispute; or
 - (d) to the extent required or permitted by law.
- 5.2 Confidential information concerning you will, as far as practicable, be made available only to those within our firm who are providing legal services for you.
- 5.3 Personal information and Privacy: In our dealings with you we will collect and hold personal information about you. We will use that information to carry out the Services and to make contact with you about issues we believe may be of interest to you. Provision of personal information is voluntary but if you do not provide full information this may impact on our ability to provide the Services.
- 5.4 Subject to clause 5.1, you authorise us to disclose, in the normal course of performing the Services, such personal information to third parties for the purpose of providing the Services and any other purposes set out in these Terms.
- 5.5 We may disclose your name and address to third parties such as credit agencies to perform a credit reference or to undertake credit management or collection processes if it is reasonable to do so.
- 5.6 The information we collect and hold about you will be kept at our offices and/or at secure file storage sites (including electronic file storage sites) elsewhere. If you are an individual, you have the right to access and correct this information. If you require access, please contact the writer.

6. Verifying your identity / Credit checks

- 6.1 We are required by law to verify your (and any person acting on your behalf) identity, address, and, in some circumstances, your source of wealth or the source of funds you are using for a transaction ("due diligence"). Where you are not an individual, but an entity or organisation such as a trust or company (or similar) we may also be required to undertake due diligence on persons associated with you ("relevant persons"), potentially including your beneficial owners, persons acting on your behalf persons who have or may have effective control over you and members of your governing body. You agree to ensure that each relevant person about whom we collect, hold and disclose information as described above is aware of and consents to that collection, holding and disclosure. You also agree to ensure that all information provided to us concerning you and any relevant person is accurate and (where relevant) complete. You acknowledge that, prior to completing such due diligence or any ongoing due diligence required, we may be prohibited from acting for you, acting for you on the relevant new matter giving rise to the need for due diligence or completing trust account transactions for you (as the case may be). We are not liable to you, or anyone else, for anything done or not done by us (including any provision of information by us to any third party, any inability to process any payment for you or any withholdings made) in order to comply with our legal obligations.
- 6.2 We may wish to carry out reasonable credit checks on you from time to time.
- 6.3 You authorise us to collect information about you and relevant persons (including customer due diligence information and credit reports), to obtain, exchange, hold, disclose and use such information, and to make any other enquiries we think appropriate to:
- (a) confirm information provided to us about you is true;
 - (b) undertake initial and ongoing customer due diligence and monitoring in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (AML/CFT Act);
 - (c) enforce debt and legal obligations (including recovery of money owed to us); and
 - (d) comply with other legal obligations we may have, which may include providing information about you, persons acting on your behalf or other relevant persons to government agencies. There may be circumstances where we are not able to tell you or such persons if we do provide information.
- 6.4 You authorise any person (including credit reporters) to disclose information (including credit information) to us in response to such enquiries.
- 6.5 You accept that we may use customer due diligence services (including third party systems and electronic based services from a third party to verify your identity and conduct other customer due diligence or monitoring required under the AML/CFT Act, and that we may use credit reporting services to credit check you, and that when we use such services:
- (a) the other third party or credit reporter (each a Service Provider) will exchange information about you for that purpose and the Service Provider may hold information on its system (which you may request and access) and use it to provide their customer due diligence service or credit reporting service (as the case may be) to their other customers;
 - (b) we may use the Service Provider's services in the future for any authorised purpose (including in relation to ongoing customer due diligence or the provision of credit). This may include using the Service Provider's monitoring services to receive updates if information held about you changes; and
 - (c) if you default in your payment obligations to us, information about that default may be given to credit reporters and given by credit reporters to their other customers.
- 6.6 We may end our engagement (or if our engagement has not commenced, refuse to act for you):
- (a) if you do not provide us with, or we are unable to obtain or verify necessary due diligence information about you, any person acting on your behalf and any other relevant person, to the extent and standards required under the AML/CFT Act, including for initial or ongoing due diligence and monitoring in accordance with the AML/CFT Act;
 - (b) information provided by you or obtained by us about you or relevant persons is insufficient for us to verify your identity, address and / or source of wealth or source of funds to required standards; or
 - (c) if required by law to do so at law, including, without limitation, if required to do so under the AML/CFT Act

7. Documents, Records and Information

- 7.1 We will keep a record of all important documents which we receive or create on your behalf on the following basis:
- (a) We will keep a record electronically and destroy originals (except where the existence of an original is legally important such as in the case of wills and deeds).
 - (b) At any time, we may dispose of documents which are duplicates, or which are trivial (such as emails which do not contain substantive information), or documents which belong to us.
 - (c) We are not obliged to retain documents or copies where you have requested that we provide them to you or to another person and we have done so, although we are entitled to retain copies for our own records if we wish to do so.
- 7.2 We will provide to you on request copies or originals (at our option) of all documents to which you are entitled under the Privacy Act 1993 or any other law. We may charge you our reasonable costs for doing this.
- 7.3 Where we hold documents that belong to a third party you will need to provide us with that party's written authority to uplift or obtain a copy of that document.
- 7.4 Unless you instruct us in writing otherwise, you authorise us and consent to us (without further reference to you) to destroy (or delete in the case of electronic records) all files and documents in respect of the Services seven (7) years after our engagement ends (other than any documents that we hold in safe custody for you or are otherwise obliged by law to retain for longer). We may retain documents for longer at our option.
- 7.5 We may, at our option, return documents (neither in hard or electronic form) to you rather than retain them. If we choose to do this, we will do so at our expense.

7.6 We own copyright in all documents or work we create in the course of performing the Services but grant you a non-exclusive licence to use and copy the documents as you see fit for your own personal or commercial use. However, you may not permit any third party to copy, adapt or use the documents without our written permission.

8. Conflicts of Interest

8.1 We are obliged to protect and promote your interests to the exclusion of the interests of third parties and ourselves as set out in the Lawyers and Conveyances Act (Lawyers: Conduct and Client Care) Rules 2008 (Rules). This may result in a situation arising where we have a conflict of interest.

8.2 We have procedures in place to identify and respond to conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest. If a conflict of interest arises we will advise you of this and follow the requirements and procedures set out in the Rules. This may mean we cannot act for you further in a particular matter and we may terminate our engagement.

9. Duty of Care

9.1 Our duty of care is to you and not to any other person. We owe no liability to any other person, including for example any directors, shareholders, associated companies, employees or family members unless we expressly agree in writing. We do not accept any responsibility or liability whatsoever to any third parties who may be affected by our performance of the Services or who may rely on any advice we give, except as expressly agreed by us in writing.

9.2 Our advice is not to be referred to in connection with any prospectus, financial statement, or public document without our written consent.

9.3 Our advice is opinion only, based on the facts known to us and on our professional judgement, and is subject to any changes in the law after the date on which the advice is given. We are not liable for errors in, or omissions from, any information provided by third parties.

9.4 Our advice relates only to each particular matter in respect of which you engage us. Once that matter is at an end, we will not owe you any duty or liability in respect of any related or other matters unless you specifically engage us in respect of those related or other matters.

9.5 Unless otherwise agreed, we may communicate with you and with others by electronic means. We cannot guarantee that these communications will not be lost or affected for some reason beyond our reasonable control, and we will not be liable for any damage or loss caused thereby.

10. Termination

10.1 You may terminate our retainer at any time.

10.2 We may terminate our retainer in any of the circumstances set out in the Rules including the existence of a conflict of interest, non-payment of fees, and failure to provide instructions.

10.3 If our retainer is terminated you must pay us all fees, disbursements and expenses incurred up to the date of termination.

11. Feedback and Complaints

11.1 Client satisfaction is one of our primary objectives and feedback from clients is helpful to us. If you would like to comment on any aspect of the service provided by us, including how we can improve our service, please contact Nicky Mathews.

11.2 If you have any concerns or complaints about our services, please raise them as soon as possible with the person to whom they relate. They will respond to your concerns as soon as possible.

11.3 If you are not satisfied with the way we have dealt with your complaint the New Zealand Law Society has a complaints service to which you may refer the issue. You can call the 0800 number for guidance, lodge a concern or make a formal complaint. Matters may be directed to:
